

Built by LetKunovice in Czechoslovakia the L-23 Super Blaník is a two-seat glider of all-metal structure. The aircraft is primarily used for flight training The L-23 was first flown in 1988.